ARROGANCE & PRIDE... PART II

CONCLUSION

Arrogance and pride is not of God. Overcoming both means 1) understanding that all we have and are capable of is because of God and 2) only humility and God's time will exalt us without repercussions. Our gifts, talents, status, etc. are to be used to edify the church and glorify God, not ourselves. Pride and arrogance comes with many consequences and guaranteed pitfalls. However, humility and God's timing guarantees exaltation in Christ. Even in those things God has allowed us to attain, we are all still apart of one body and cannot function on our own. Therefore, we should serve one another in humility and allow God to elevate us in Him.
