

SEXUAL ACTIVITY: PUTTING IT INTO PERSPECTIVE...PART I

Focus Text - I Corinthians 6:19

INTRODUCTION

It is ironic that many adults fail to discuss sexual activity with our youth, but expect our youth and young adults to make wise decisions. Countless parents are in denial, pretending that sexual encounters do not exist with their children, and many churches only tell the youth that fornication is going to send them to hell, without any other pertinent information. Many ministers and elders avoid the subject, while the youth and young adults in the churches struggle daily with the natural and spiritual conflicts surrounding sexual activity and promiscuity. Various youth and young adults constantly receive false information about sex because those in their homes and churches rarely or never take the time to say “This is what sexual activity is...”, “This is the damage it can do before marriage...”, “This is how to deal with sexual feelings until you are married...”, and “This is what God says about it...” Today, we are going to explore some of ideas surrounding sexual activity and discuss REAL ANSWERS TO REAL QUESTIONS.
